coration of a Grave by Negro Handiti-rest of the Wretches—They are Takes on the Jail and Lynched. correspondent of the Goldsboro (N. C.) Messenger ilars of a terrible tragedy that re-in Lenotr county, in that State. It The purpose of this descentation was evint ain possession of the heavy silver me on the coffin, which were rept quite valuable. On the discovery this act of vandalism the greatest excitement and indignation prevailed. The sheriff of the county promptly summoned a poses of men and started in pursuit of them on Thursday evaning, the 21st inst. At a late hour the party came in contact with the scoundrels and were lived upon, which resulted in the wounding of one of the sheriffs men, a Mr. Elimore, slightly in the mouth. The fire was returned with a will, instantly killing one of the negroes, whose body was completely riddled with halls, or something of the kind, which, by some means, was set on fire, completely consuming the dead body. As the pile burned down it was discovered, by the frequent discharge of firearms, that there were a number of guns, pistols, f.c., concealed in the shucks. Several negroes and one white man were arrested and brought in. They had an examination before a justice's court on Friday and were committed to jail.

And now for the sequel. At a late hour on Saturday night Mr. Freeman, the jailor, was called up by an armed party of mounted nees, numbering twelve or fifteen, and requested to get his keys and go with them to the jail, allegang that they had a prisoner whom they desired him to take to jail. However, poon arriving at the jail. Mr. Freeman was informed of the truth and requested to surrender the keys at the hazard of his life. They then proceeded to disgorge the jail of six prisoners—one white man and five negroes—who were known to have been connected with the grave robbery as well as several other high-handed orimes in the same neighborthood, whom they carried of towards the county bridge, one mile below town. A large quantity of blood and brains was discovered upon the bridge vesterday, evidently showing that these despiratoes me with a terribis face. The lynchers were unknown. There still sceme to be no positive conclusions as to the design of the thieves in taking up Mr. Williams. His remains have not yet been found.

SHOCKING MURDER IN ROBESON COUNTY, N. C.

Another Mortally Wounded.

[Lumb erton, N. C. (Jan. 25), correspondence of the Wilmington Journal.]

Our community is again the scene of unusual excitement in consequence of a most dastardly attempt at murder and robbery, under the following circumstances:—On Saturday evening last Reuben in the following circumstances:—On Saturday evening last Reuben in the following circumstances:—On Saturday evening last Reuben county, left town for his place of residence, about two miles distant. He arrived about dark, and had been home but a few moments when he was attacked at his fireside by a gang of robbers in disguise, and isk in number. The first intimation he had of their presence was a man in the door with a gun pointed at him and the demand for his gold and sliver. Mr. King jumped from his seat and succeeded in the Boor, going entirely through. While engaged with this secondare Mr. King was shot just the back with a pistol, which caused him to full helpless to the floor. Mr. E. B. Ward, who was also present, was shot twice, both taking effect, from which will probably die. The doctor in attendance has no hope of the recovery of Mr. King. The robbers then proceeded to ranaget the house, getting only $200 from the pocket of the latter. They then made from town.

Hom town.

Governor Holden ordered the Sheriff of Robeson Some time ago to capture the robbers and murderers at all hazards, but his order was never-obeyed. The ringlender of this band, H. B. Lowry, was in just recently; but, owing to the negligence of Sheriff and jailor, he soon got out. They are all supposed to be tree mulattoes except one or two.
